

2023
CHRISTIAN FOCUS
ADULT CATALOGUE

As Christians, we owe so much to those who have gone before us. We see examples of their faithfulness, their witness to the work God has done in their lives and can be encouraged by the way he uses ordinary people to do extraordinary things.

Two books in the new series Hall of Faith can be found on page six. These short story-based biographies are easy to read and will be a great introduction to these well-known Christians. The first two are Joni Eareckson Tada and Dietrich Bonhoeffer, and there are plans to release two more in 2024 on Corie ten Boom and Bill Graham.

On page four you will find a new comprehensive biography of a figure who has faced some controversy in recent years: David Livingstone: Missionary, Explorer, Abolitionist. Vance Christie explores the life of this flawed and dedicated man.

In 2023 one of Britain's most prominent theologians passed into his eternal rest. Although Donald Macleod is no longer with us, he leaves behind some of his knowledge in a collection of books and other writings. Some of his more recent works can be found on pages twenty-four and twenty-five, including From the Marrow Men to the Moderates: Scottish Theology 1700-1800.

John C. Lennox gives us biblical principles for work, wealth and wisdom in A Good Return on page twelve, while John Gillespie takes the wisdom of Jonathan Edwards' Resolutions into the 21st century in Following Jesus in an Age of Quitters.

As always, our prayer is that these books would point readers to Christ, and keep our eyes fixed on the pioneer and perfecter of faith.

OUR MISSION

Staying Faithful – In dependence upon God we seek to impact the world through literature faithful to His infallible Word, the Bible. Our aim is to ensure that the Lord Jesus Christ is presented as the only hope to obtain forgiveness of sin, live a useful life and look forward to heaven with Him.

Reaching Out – Christ's last command requires us to reach out to our world with His Gospel. We seek to help fulfil that by publishing books, which point people towards Jesus and for them to develop a Christ-like maturity. We aim to equip all levels of readers for life, work, ministry and mission.

You should be able to pick up these books through your local bookstore, but if you have any difficulties purchasing books please go to our website www.christianfocus.com where you'll find more information about each book and forthcoming titles too.

2,000 Years of Christ's Power Vol. 5

The Age of Enlightenment and Awakening

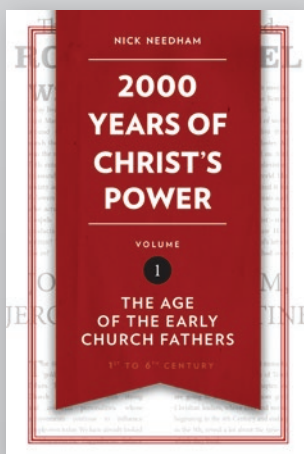

Nick Needham

Covering the period of the Enlightenment, Nick Needham's new volume in the 2,000 Years of Christ's Power series encompasses the social, economic, political and evangelical changes across two continents.

... the best place to start to gain an understanding of the sweep of the 18th century. Highly recommended.

David Livingstone

Missionary, Explorer, Abolitionist

Vance Christie

An unpretentious Scottish missionary doctor, explorer and abolitionist, David Livingstone opened the door for Christianity in southern Africa. Christie takes a balanced look at Livingstone's amazing achievements, but also at his very real flaws, tackling accusations levelled against Livingstone in recent years. This gripping in-depth biography is a must-read insight into a fascinating man.

The Power and the Glory

John Ross and the Evangelisation of Manchuria and Korea

John Stuart Ross

John Ross spent 40 years of his life in Manchuria and left behind an amazing legacy, including the first version of the New Testament in Korean. John S. Ross's riveting biography tracks not only his life, but also the social, political and spiritual influences which shaped his life and work.

No Difficulties With God

The Life of Thomas Charles, Bala (1755-1814)

D. Eryl Davies

Thomas Charles worked tirelessly preaching the gospel, educating the poor to read the Bible, then obtaining Bibles in Welsh and other languages for them to read. We can learn from his commitment to Christ and His church, his love of the Bible and awareness of divine providence as well as his experience of genuine revivals.

The Reluctant Queen

and Other Reformation Women

Elaine Snuggs

The women in this book were not flawless heroines but in times of trial showed themselves to be brave, of strong character and radiant spirit. See how God has exercised his sovereignty in history – in the public sphere and in the lives of individuals – and be inspired to love Christ more.

The Tinker's Progress

A Biography of John Bunyan

Jacob Tanner

Known primarily for writing The Pilgrim's Progress, John Bunyan was also a preacher and gifted theologian. Tanner traces Bunyan's life from his humble beginnings and debauched youth, to glimpses of grace and a calling to ministry. It serves as a masterclass in how to live for Christ in a world that is antagonistic to God.

Letters and Travels By C. H. Spurgeon

Edited by Kevin Belmonte

This collection of C. H. Spurgeon's travel letters offers a rare insight into a different side of the famed preacher. We see him at rest, refreshing himself in the glories of nature and connecting with the wonders of the Creator. With a painter's gifts, set amid the countryside of England, or places of Europe, Spurgeon's Travel Letters are eloquent, and many times moving.

Susannah Spurgeon

Lessons for a Life of Joyful Eagerness in Christ

Mary K. Mohler

Susannah was the wife of preacher and evangelist, Charles Spurgeon. She was his pastoral assistant and support through many trials, while enduring her own struggles. This is a thoughtful, sympathetic and endearing epitaph to a sister in Christ, whose voice can no longer be ignored.

Joni Eareckson Tada

Catherine MacKenzie

Joni Eareckson Tada was seventeen when a serious diving accident meant she was paralysed from the shoulders down. Her testimony is one that has encouraged and moved people around the world. Read it and see how God works for the good of those who love him, even in the most challenging circumstances.

Dietrich Bonhoeffer

Dayspring MacLeod

Bonhoeffer was one of the heroes of World War II. He preached God's word fearlessly and resisted the evil of the Nazi regime. Discovered to be involved in the plot to assassinate Hitler, he was arrested and eventually martyred. Dayspring MacLeod skilfully tells his story in this new book in the Hall of Faith series.

Proclamation Trust's Teaching The Bible Series

This series is for those who have the privilege and the joy of teaching or preaching a particular book or theme from the Bible. Whether you are a small group leader, preacher or a youth worker, it will help you to communicate the message from a biblical theme or book. This book will provide a useful launching pad for biblical exposition, planning and executing a lesson or sermon in particular, with background, structure, key points and application. They are all geared to teach you the truth of Scripture. This series is published in conjunction with Proclamation Trust Media whose aim is to encourage ministry that seeks above all to expound the Bible as God's Word for today.

Teaching Deuteronomy

From Text to Message

Matt Fuller

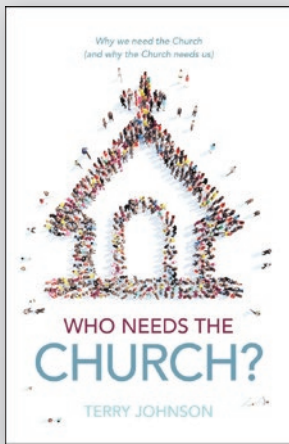

In his helpful guide Matt Fuller suggests ways preachers might want to tackle Deuteronomy and shows the important of preaching the book to Christians. He urges them to preach Deuteronomy as an urgent and passionate call to love the Lord wholeheartedly, to choose to love him each and every day.

Bound in a soft faux leather with a ribbon bookmark, any one of these would make a wonderful gift.

Daily Readings - William Wilberforce

Michael D. McMullen and William Wilberforce

Michael D. McMullen has worked extensively on the life and manuscripts of Wilberforce and has carefully selected these readings. From a variety of sources, including his spiritual journals and letters, we meet a man who is introspective and self-deprecating. But his devotion to the God who called him to be an 'Agent of Usefulness' is abundantly clear.
