AUTHOR

Christina Fox is a counselor, retreat speaker, writer, and author of several books including 'Tell God How You Feel: Helping Kids with Hard Emotions' and 'A Heart Set Free: A Journey to Hope Through the Psalms of Lament'. You can find her at www.christinafox.com.

ENDORSEMENTS

In her latest book, Closer Than A Sister, Christina Fox through the use of biblical teaching, personal example, and practical teaching takes her readers by the hand and guides them through what the biblical and normal Christian life is like in the local church and outside of it.

Dave Jenkins
Executive Director, Servants of Grace Ministries

Rather than attempting to survive on surface-level friendships, Closer Than a Sister shows us how to live in biblical community with one another.

Melissa B. Kruger
author and vice president of discipleship programming for The Gospel Coalition

In a day when discussions concerning women in the church and women's ministries, in particular, are at their zenith, Christian Fox has done us an enormous service by wedding a sound biblical theology of union with Christ to a sound biblical theology of fellowship--particularly as it relates to women in the church.

Nick Batzig
Pastor, New Covenant Presbyterian Church (PCA), Richmond Hill, Georgia and Editor, Reformation 21

Christina Fox has written a beautiful and helpful book outlining a biblical definition of friendship and pointing us towards the one Friend who will never leave us or forsake us. If you want to become a better "sister-friend" or find yourself longing for a friend, this book will encourage your soul.

Courtney Reissig
Author of 'Teach Me to Feel: Worshipping Through the Psalms in Every Season of Life'
