AUTHOR

Kenneth Berding, Ph.D., is professor of New Testament at Talbot School of Theology at Biola University and author of numerous books and articles. He regularly blogs at KennethBerding.com, is editor of The Good Book Blog, and director of Bible Fluency: Sing it, See it, Study it.

ENDORSEMENTS

This is an excellent resource to encourage Bible memorization as something that the Bible itself endorses. It also provides many pieces of advice and thoughtful hints about how to do it, and how to retain what you have memorized. Highly recommended!

Vern Poythress
Professor of New Testament Interpretation, Westminster Theological Seminary, Philadelphia

... refreshingly simple to understand and implement.

Janet Pope
Author, 'His Word in My Heart'

There's no one I'd rather have guide me in the lifelong discipline and joy of knowing the Bible by heart. This is one of the rare books every Christian should read and return to again and again.

Keith R. Krell
Senior Pastor, Crossroads Bible Church, Bellevue, Washington

The Scriptures have gone deeply into Ken's heart and everyone who knows him realizes how profoundly God's Word has transformed him to be like Jesus.

Erik Thoennes
Professor of Theology, Biola University; Pastor, Grace Evangelical Free Church, La Mirada, California
