AUTHOR

Dale Ralph Davis is a respected Bible expositor and author of many popular books. He was Minister in Residence of First Presbyterian Church, Columbia in South Carolina. Prior to that he was pastor of Woodland Presbyterian Church, Hattiesburg, Mississippi and Professor of Old Testament at Reformed Theological Seminary, Jackson, Mississippi.

ENDORSEMENTS

Ralph Davis writes with a pastor's heart. I have now read this book twice and each time the eyes of my understanding were opened to fresh insights and my soul was nourished. You can't ask for more.

Jonathan Fletcher - Evangelicals Now

Ralph Davis is probably my favorite Old Testament expositor: he always unfolds the text with freshness, insight, and humor, leaving the reader with a clear understanding of what God is up to and the difference that should make in our lives. This volume on Abraham is a classic in the making!

Iain Duguid
Professor of Old Testament, Westminster Theological Seminary, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

... another example of the lively biblical exposition that readers of Dale Ralph Davis have come to know and love... Anyone wanting to study, preach, or teach Genesis 12-25 will want to have this book ready at hand.

Scott R. Swain
Professor of Systematic Theology, Reformed Theological Seminary, Orlando, Florida

What a pleasure it is to read Dale Ralph Davis on Abraham... He writes with clarity, insight and warmth as well as a lovely humility before God and his word. Read, enjoy and benefit.

Graham Beynon
Pastor, Grace Church, Cambridge and Director of Independent Ministry Training, Oak Hill College, London.
