ENDORSEMENTS

"The Runaway was an awesome book that kept me on the edge of my seat until the end. I loved reading this book and couldn't put it down til I knew what would happen to poor Wendy."

Trisha Bleau, Teens4Jesus Online Ministry

"This is a highly topical book, . . . this is no trite or clumsy imposition of a 'gospel' message; the deft weaving of an overtly spiritual dimension (notably the providence of God) into the story, achieved the author's light touch, only adds to its plausibility."

Both the author and the publishers are to be commended for producing this book. It deserves a wide reading among teenagers, from Christian homes and otherwise.

Adrian Sargent, Evangelicals Now

If you like this, you'll love this: Martin's Last Chance by Heidi Schmidt.
Martin is tackling a serious heart condition. He urgently needs surgery but will he receive it in time and how will his friends react? This is a fictional story that is strongly based on real facts. Issues such as death and forgiveness are tackled within the story line as well as a strong gospel message.
