AUTHOR

Allan Harman has had a life-time interest in exposition of the biblical text. He is Research Professor at the Presbyterian Theological College in Melbourne, Australia. He has lectured and preached in many countries and served as the senior editor of the Reformed Theological Review, Australia's oldest theological journal until he retired at the end of 2013.

Matthew Henry (1662-1714), a beloved commentator, was a pastor of a church in Chester and a prolific writer.

ENDORSEMENTS

"He studied the scriptures intently (all but 4 of the Biblical books are referred to), and organised his material methodically. Constantly he illustrates, not by lengthy stories but by phrases and references, which crystallize his points... I can testify to the blessing they have been to me."
