Kenneth Berding, Ph.D., is professor of New Testament at Talbot School of Theology at Biola University and author of numerous books and articles. He regularly blogs at KennethBerding.com, is editor of The Good Book Blog, and director of Bible Fluency: Sing it, See it, Study it.

ENDORSEMENTS

Understanding the meaning and significance of our new identity as believers in relationship to Jesus Christ is the number one concern of the Apostle Paul in his letters. Deep prayerful reflection on these key elements of life in Christ will transform you from the inside out.

Clinton E. Arnold
Dean and Professor of New Testament, Talbot School of Theology (Biola University), La Mirada, California

I cannot remember the last time I read a book on union with Christ and was so convicted that I stopped and prayed. Without compromising biblical and theological depth, Berding unveils the innumerable ways union with Christ makes a real difference in the Christian life.

Matthew Barrett
Associate Professor of Christian Theology, Midwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, Kansas City, Missouri

Dr Berding is at his best in this book, bringing us to the fundamental truths of Scripture and applying them to our lives with relevancy for Christians at all levels of maturity.

Kyle Fox
Lead Pastor, Red Mountain Community Church, Meza, Arizona

Theologically rich, yet intensely practical; I felt as if Ken were providing me with a set of 'in Christ' lenses through which to view every facet of my life. I will revisit this book often to refocus my gaze on Christ, and all that is true of life in Him.

Jeffrey Bruce
Lead Pastor, Creekside Community Church, San Leandro, California
