

CONTENTS

Thanks and Acknowledgements..... 11

Introduction

The Beauty of Christ: The Trinitarian Context of Christology 13

PART ONE

The Trinitarian Context of the Person and Work of Christ

Chapter 1

The Witness of Old and New Testaments to Christ 45

Chapter 2

Names and Titles of Christ in Old and New Testaments 71

Appendix 2.1

The Genealogies of Jesus Christ 101

Appendix 2.2

The Issue of Translating Divine Familial terms for Muslim Language Communities 111

Chapter 3

Crucial Passages on the Lord's Incarnation and Atonement 139

Chapter 4

The Hypostatic Union 183

Appendix 4.1

Early Thirteenth-Century Development of the Theology of the Hypostatic Union in Western Church 219

Appendix 4.2

Historical and Contemporary Application of Chalcedon 223

Chapter 5

Questions Raised by the Hypostatic Union 229

Chapter 6

The Post-Critical Christ: The Continuing Influence of the Epistemology and Christology of Immanuel Kant 261

PART TWO

The Humiliation of Christ

Chapter 7

The States of Christ 295

Chapter 8

Christ's Active Obedience (His Sonship) 317

Chapter 9
The Humiliation of Christ in the Sufferings of His Life and Death.....	341
Chapter 10
Seven Last Words, Burial, and Descent into Hell.....	371
Appendix 10.I
Metaphors for the Atonement.....	421
PART THREE
The Exaltation of Christ
Chapter 11
The Resurrection of Christ	447
Appendix 11.I
The Truth of God is known in the Church.....	491
Chapter 12
The Ascension, Session, and Return of Christ.....	501
Bibliography	523
Scripture Index	547
Person Index	555
Subject Index.....	559