ENDORSEMENTS

Robert Cara's commentary on Hebrews is marked by clear and convincing exegesis, theological depth, and practical relevance.

Thomas R. Schreiner
James Buchanan Harrison Professor of New Testament Interpretation and Associate Dean, The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, Louisville, Kentucky

Cara has written an impressive commentary—deeply researched yet conversational in tone, theologically rich yet pastorally attuned—on one of the most important and difficult books of the Bible.

Kevin DeYoung
Senior Pastor, Christ Covenant Church, Matthews, North Carolina

Cara's footnotes demonstrate a thorough acquaintance with the relevant literature (contemporary and historical), while his exposition provides readers with exegetically careful and theologically sound readings of the text. Highly recommended.

Guy Prentiss Waters
James M. Baird, Jr. Professor of New Testament and Academic Dean, Reformed Theological Seminary, Jackson, Mississippi

Here is a real treat: a commentary on Hebrews written from a consistently Reformed perspective, which interacts with both historical and contemporary scholarship.

Brandon D. Crowe
Associate Professor of New Testament, Westminster Theological Seminary, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania
