Well known and respected writer

Part of 'Focus On The Bible' series

Dale Ralph Davis explains the text and helps to apply it to our lives

AUTHOR

Dale Ralph Davis is a respected Bible expositor and author of many popular books. He was Minister in Residence of First Presbyterian Church, Columbia in South Carolina. Prior to that he was pastor of Woodland Presbyterian Church, Hattiesburg, Mississippi and Professor of Old Testament at Reformed Theological Seminary, Jackson, Mississippi.

ENDORSEMENTS

Enthusiasm for these commentaries is absolutely right. No preacher should be without them. No thoughtful Christian can fail to be excited and edified by them.

Evangelicals Now

... readable and theologically reliable. This commentary is of value both as a book to be read and enjoyed and as a study book for preachers. It is excellent.

Evangelical Times

One of the reasons I enjoy Davis's exposition so much is that I feel confident that he has done his exegetical homework, and so is not just delivering blessed, unhistorical thoughts on the text. Yet at the same time, he applies the text so well.

Simon Gathercole
Director of Studies, Theology and Religious Studies, Fitzwilliam College, Cambridge University, Cambridge presents historical and theological material in a way that can only excite the expositor.
