DESCRIPTION

This book contains a reminder and a profound encouragement for the Christian. You have been given the Holy Spirit through faith in Jesus Christ and he is working beautiful qualities in you. You have the resources you need at your disposal to live a life of love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self–control. Isn't a life marked by these beautiful qualities what everyone is seeking? We look in all kinds of places to find it, we put ourselves under all kinds of stress trying to achieve it, and yet here is God offering it to us as a gift. Come and welcome to the good life.

ENDORSEMENTS

… allows divine truth to speak to human struggle, showing us how God's people are called and enabled to live counter–cultural lives before a watching world and to the glory of God. I highly recommend it.

Tony Merida
Pastor, Imago Dei Church, Raleigh, North Carolina and author of 'Love Your Church'

… a hope–filled, honest guide to the Fruit of the Spirit that will both comfort and challenge you, whether you're a new shoot or seasoned oak. Pastoral wisdom abounds, simplistic answers pruned.

Jonty Rhodes
Minister, Christ Church Central, Leeds, UK

Reuben Hunter writes as he preaches – with warm pastoral concern, keen cultural acumen and a dry sense of humour. This book on Galatians 5:22 is thoughtful, profound, practical and hopeful in a world where the fruit of the Spirit is so needed and in such short supply.

Philip Moore
Network Director, Acts 29 Europe and Pastor, Lagny, Paris

A gem of a little book, at the same time wonderfully encouraging and profoundly challenging. … a counter–cultural call which offers not only transformation for us as individuals, but for our relationships, and for our society. Recommended.

Daniel Strange
College Director, Oak Hill Theological College, London
