DESCRIPTION

Finding Refuge in God's Sovereign Grace

The book of Zephaniah may be one of the Bible's most neglected treasures, but its message is both timely and profound. In A Shelter in a Time of Storm, Dale Ralph Davis opens up this powerful prophetic book with clarity, wisdom, and pastoral warmth.

- Discover the meaning of the Day of the Lord
- Understand God's judgment and mercy
- See how Zephaniah points to Christ
- Find hope and assurance in uncertain times

Accessible and engaging, this exposition helps readers uncover the riches of Zephaniah and find lasting refuge in God's faithful promises.

AUTHOR

Dale Ralph Davis is a respected Bible expositor and author of many popular books. He was Minister in Residence of First Presbyterian Church, Columbia in South Carolina. Prior to that he was pastor of Woodland Presbyterian Church, Hattiesburg, Mississippi and Professor of Old Testament at Reformed Theological Seminary, Jackson, Mississippi.

ENDORSEMENTS

The true significance of Davis's work ... is to remind Christ's church that God's covenant faithfulness never fails, even when, or especially when, his own people do. Judgment is not Zephaniah's last word; shelter is.

Miles V. Van Pelt
Professor of Old Testament and Biblical Languages, Reformed Theological Seminary, Jackson, Mississippi

Who is the best expositional Old Testament commentator, and why is it Dale Ralph Davis? In all seriousness, if Davis writes it, I consult it as a pastor. This volume on one of the Bible's most neglected—and, yes, strangest—books will be a magnificent resource for those entrusted to proclaim God's Word.

Lead Pastor, River City Baptist Church, Richmond, Virginia; author, 'Tim Keller on the Christian Life'; cohost, The Everyday Pastor
