The Caring Creator

Carine MacKenzie

Everything that exists was made by God – and he cares for it deeply. Even when things have gone wrong, God cares for the people, plants and animals that he has made. God has a plan to care for and renew his creation. One day all things will be made new. Even the wolf and the lamb will be friends; the lions will be as tame as the horses and cows.

We are part of his plan; we should trust him and tell others about him. The Caring Creator by Carine Mackenzie retells the account of creation and the fall from the book of Genesis, relating it to God’s plan of redemption for all of His creation.
