Helen Roseveare

A Life in Her Own Words

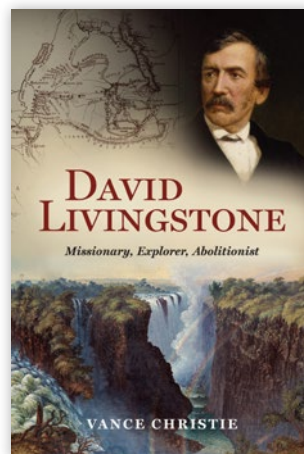

Helen Roseveare

Marvel at how God worked all throughout Helen's life, through her training, call to the mission field and work as a medic in the Congo, but also through civil war, brutality and rape. See how her faith and simple daily obedience led her to meet with God on the mountain top, but also in the darkest of valleys. A captivating read from a well-known and loved missionary, with supplementary material by Betsy Childs Howard and John and Noël Piper.

While the emphasis is on refined dogmatic formulation through rigorous exegesis and exploration into each doctrine's historical background, this is done alongside warm, earnest pastoral application – making these studies practically, as well as theologically, relevant.

The Army of God

Spurgeon's Vision for the Church

Geoffrey Chang

Charles Haddon Spurgeon faithfully served the Metropolitan Tabernacle from 1854 to his death in 1892. Undergirding everything else was this central responsibility: Spurgeon was the pastor of a church. What was Spurgeon's ecclesiology and how did it affect how he ordered and led his local church? Chang examines Spurgeon's Reformed ecclesiology and Baptist polity and looks at how they were shaped by his militant church outlook.

All Hail, Thou Comforter Divine

Spurgeon's Theology of the Holy Spirit

Tyler Smiley

Drawing from sermons, letters, and other writings, Smiley demonstrates how the Spirit permeated every aspect of Spurgeon's thought and practice. The book explores Spurgeon's teachings on the Spirit's role in salvation, sanctification, preaching, and church life, offering valuable insights for contemporary ministry and filling a significant gap in Spurgeon scholarship.
