

Jesus and his mother Mary were guests at a wedding in Cana in Galilee. Jesus' special friends, the disciples, were there too.

During the wedding feast Mary said to Jesus,
"The wine is finished."
Mary then told the servants, "Do whatever
Jesus tells you."

There were six big stone water pots in the room. "Fill these up with water," said Jesus. "Now take a cupful to the man in charge of the feast."

The man thought it was the best wine he had ever tasted. Jesus had turned the water into wine.

