

A is for Adam

Adam was the first ever man. Eve was the first ever woman. God made them both. He didn't just make one person, he made two. He realised that Adam would need somebody to be a friend and helper to him.

God made the whole world. It was perfect. It was very good. God was pleased. The world was a lovely place to live. There was no anger, or pain or sorrow. It was beautiful. Everything was as good as it could be, because God made it. But what happened next? Read on and find out.

You can do it

- * God made you. Thank him for your body.
- * Read Psalm 139:13-16.
- * What colour is your hair?
