CF4•K

Welcome to our children's imprint – CF4K
Because you are never too young to know Jesus!

Here at Christian Focus, we're passionate about making sure children have good, biblical resources available to them, because you're never to young to know Jesus. In fact, CFP's whole book publishing ministry began with the MacKenzie family being unable to find good books that would point their children to Jesus. And so, they took on the task themselves.

In the years that have passed since then, many things have changed. The software, the printing techniques, the online sales would be unrecognisable to that fledgling company all those years ago. But the most important thing is that the message is the same. The God we serve is the same yesterday, today and forever. Jesus is still calling little children to come to him. Families still need faithful resources that tell God's truth in ways young hearts can understand.

To that end, we've released the first eight of twelve story books on the Minor Prophets. God's Daring Dozen (p.4-5) is a beautifully illustrated, historically accurate series that tells the stories of these often-overlooked books, and faithfully points readers to the One these prophets looked forward to. Written to be read to 4-6-year-olds, parents will learn a lot too!

We also want to teach our kids about the history of the Church, and about the Christians who have gone before. In 2022-23 we've added 7 new biographies to our Trail Blazers series – Jack Turner: Truth in the Arctic; Elaine Townsend: At Home Around the World; William Carey: Expecting Great Things; Charles Simeon: For Christ in Cambridge; Olaudah Equiano: A Man of Many Names; Thomas Cranmer: The King's Ambassador; and, the newest addition, Polycarp: Faithful unto Death. Check out all 66 books now available in this beloved series on p.23-25.

On p.10 and 11 we have two new series focusing on the history of the Church. The Risen Hope series provides an absorbing overview of the whole history of the Church (final volume to be released in 2024). Luke H. Davis' narrative style means young teens will find reading these books to be enjoyable as well as educational. Meanwhile, the Who What Why series takes a more in depth look at specific moments in history. Having tackled the Reformation and the abolition of slavery so far, this will be a series to keep an eye on. Written by homeschool curriculum developer, Danika Cooley, these books are packed with fascinating facts and fun illustrations for 9-11-year-olds.

The Great Big Sad

Helping Children Navigate Grief and Loss

Christina Fox

We all know that loss is the 'great big sad' of life. Grief is a journey we all take in life. How do parents and caregivers help children navigate grief? The Great Big Sad follows familiar siblings Josh and Mia (from Tell God How You Feel and God Hears Your Heart) as they face the death of their beloved grandmother. It is a discipleship tool for parents and caregivers in helping children learn that people grieve in different ways, how to talk about grief, ways to honor and remember a loved one, and how Jesus knows and understands their tears. Available September 2023

Redemption

The Church in Ancient Times

Luke H. Davis

The ancient Church braved persecution, death, debate, and mystery on behalf of generations to come. From the Apostle Peter at Pentecost in Jerusalem to St. Patrick on the shores of Ireland in the year 432, they who found their way over many years by the light that God shined forth for them.

Reign

The Church in the Middle Ages

Luke H. Davis

During the Middle Ages the Church laboured to build a community of faith. This was a Church that wanted to secure freedom and proclaim the gospel. When that Church fell into corruption it undertook its own reform. And through their story we find hope in the God who loves His Church as we seek to live in His name.

Reform

The Church at the Birth of Protestantism

Luke H. Davis

Throughout Europe there was a spiritual darkness. But in those dark times, light dawned. Individuals, including Martin Luther, John Calvin, and Thomas Cranmer, led movements of reformation, calling people to the clear teaching of the Bible, to Christ, to faith, to grace, to live to the glory of God.

How to Be a Bible Brainiac

Catherine MacKenzie

Are you great at quizzes? Do you know the answers to all the questions in Sunday School? Can you beat anyone in Bible trivia? Well, that's great! But the very best thing that you can learn from the Bible is how to have a relationship with God. It's important to not just know about God, but to know him personally. Catherine MacKenzie shows us how we can get to know God as our saviour and friend.
