BOOK ANNOUNCEMENT

Facing the challenges post adoption –
Finding hope and perspective!

Whispers of Hope

by Twila Miles

Whispers of Hope is unique. It does not explain how to adopt a child, nor does it provide a comprehensive method for rearing an adopted child. Instead, this book offers something desperately needed in the adoption community: Hope for adoptive parents who are struggling more than they ever thought possible.

Whispers of Hope gives encouragement, new perspective, and hope through Jesus Christ to the adoptive parents who feel like they are drowning and needing a life-line.

“Twila's unique insight into the older child adoption journey and her application of scripture is an invaluable gift. In telling her story, Twila comes alongside others in their own stories, asking good and necessary questions that keep us seeking God's face at every turn.”

Christa Wells, Singer/Songwriter, Raleigh, North Carolina

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Twila Miles is an adoptive mother, author, and conference speaker. She and her husband, Jeff, live in Raleigh, North Carolina, with their five children. Their oldest child was adopted from Ukraine at the age of twelve. Understanding the challenges that often accompany an older-child adoption, Twila's work focuses on offering gospel hope and encouragement to adoptive parents, family, and friends.  ISBN- 9781781915516
 Trade Paper: 304 pages
 £8.99/$14.99
 January 2015 UK Release
 March 2015 US Release

Designed as a practical resource for Christian families and churches, the book empowers and inspires Christians to reform international adoption and orphan care. In Defense of the Fatherless casts a powerful vision for the end of the orphan crisis, inviting Christians to protect and provide for orphans and widows in response to God's mercy.

“Any couple thinking of adopting, any church wanting to be involved in solving this problem should read this book.”

Mary Whelchel, Director of Women’s Ministries,
 The Moody Church, Chicago, Illinois

“...will challenge, convict and fuel a conversation that is much needed today for the church to move forward in international adoption and orphan care passionately, wisely, and ethically.”
