

BOOK ANNOUNCEMENT

Where hugs and holiness operate side by side.

Renewing Broken Lives

by May Nicholson and Irene Howat

May Nicholson's story, told so powerfully in Miracles from Mayhem and More Miracles from Mayhem, tells of how she went from being a drunk no-hoper to establishing Preshal, a Christian trust based in one of the most needy areas of Glasgow. The work of Preshal and its impact continue to challenge and inspire. In Renewing Broken Lives you will find May's story and the story of Preshal interwoven with the stories that men and women tell of their own lives. The book will be sure to move readers to tears, to laughter and to prayer.

"In all my life I've seldom met a human being with such Christian conviction and caring attitude to her fellow man ... May is a star and has a compelling story to tell which will inspire you."

About – The Preshal Trust

The Preshal Trust was launched in November 2002 and is a registered charity based in Govan, Scotland. This is an area of economic and social deprivation with high unemployment, low educational attainment, poor health and serious poverty levels and our objective is to provide support and to deliver a range of services to socially excluded people and families living in the Govan area of Glasgow.

The project supports a range of clients of all ages who have addiction problems, mental health issues, disabilities, ex-offenders, prisoners and their families, infants, children, young people, parents and carers and anyone affected by social exclusion and isolation
