

BOOK ANNOUNCEMENT

*Christian Focus presents
2,000 Years of Christ's Power featuring much-anticipated Volume 4 from Nick Needham*

2000 Years of Christ's Power is a series of volumes covering the history of the church, written by Nick Needham, who teaches Church History at the Highland Theological College. This series was born out of the author's deep conviction that today's Christians can benefit enormously from learning what God has done in the past. Academically reliable, but written with an easy, even humorous style which makes it accessible to anybody with an interest, this work falls into a category all of its own.

"It is a brave historian who tackles the extremely challenging task of writing the 2,000-year history of the Church. Well, Nick Needham has more than risen to the challenge. This eagerly-awaited fourth volume has been well worth the wait and, not to pressure our brother scholar, we now look forward to the concluding volume!"

Michael A. G. Haykin, The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary

"For many years now I have said: if you want a thorough, learned but accessible and well-written history of the church, read Nick Needham's 2,000 Years of Christ's Power. Now, with the fourth volume finally available, Christians have an excellent resource for improving their knowledge of the history of their faith. Highly recommended."

Carl R. Trueman, Westminster Theological Seminary

Christian Focus Publications partners with Grace Publications Trust for future publication of GPT titles.

Grace Publications Trust (GPT) is a not for profit organisation that exists to glorify God by making the truth of God's Word (as declared in the Baptist Confessions of 1689 and 1966) clear and understandable, so that:

- Christians will be helped to preach Christ
- Christians will know Christ better and delight in him more
- Christians will be equipped to live for Christ
- Seekers will come to know Christ

From its beginning in the late 1970s the Trust has published simplified and modernised versions of important Christian books written earlier, for example by some of the Reformers and Puritans. These books have helped introduce the riches of the past to a new generation and have proved particularly useful in parts of Asia and Africa where English is widely spoken as a second language. These books are now appearing in editions co-published with Christian Focus Publications

www.gracepublications.co.uk

Christian Focus Publications, headquartered in Scotland, UK, publishes up to 80 titles each year with books also translated into over 80 languages. The market split for CFP books is approximately 50% USA, 30% UK and 20% rest of world (including exports to English-speaking nations and translations in other languages).

Christian Focus books are categorized in four focused imprints: "Christian Focus"—popular adult titles; "CF4K"—books for children; "Christian Heritage"—classics; and "Mentor"—academic.
