

Putting God First

We are always making choices – which T-shirt to wear – which flavour of crisps to buy. Sometimes we have good reasons for the choice we make. Often it is just a matter of preference. Many of the choices we make are not very important but some are extremely important.

God gave us the Ten Commandments as guidelines for our daily living. He wants us to obey his commands. His first commandment states, ‘Thou shalt have no other gods before me’ (Exodus 20:3).

When Joshua was an old man, he gathered the leaders of Israel together at Shechem to tell them God’s message. They were reminded of God’s goodness to them in times past. He delivered them from slavery in Egypt and gave them the Promised Land. They were presented with a vitally important choice. To put away the gods that their forefathers used to serve. Choose not to serve the same false gods that the local people the Amorites serve. Instead, ‘fear the LORD and serve him in sincerity and truth.’

‘Choose you this day whom you will serve,’ Joshua told the people, ‘but as for me and my house, we will serve the LORD.’

We have that important choice too. The Lord God Jehovah, the God of the Bible, is the only God. We should worship him only. He tolerates no rivals. You may hear about other gods and religions in school. Jehovah is not merely the best god; he is in a class of his own – the one and only true God.

Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego were captives in Babylon. King Nebuchadnezzar told the people to worship his golden statue or else they would be thrown into a burning fiery furnace. Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego refused to bow down. They obeyed God's first commandment. 'Thou shalt have no other gods before me.'

Nebuchadnezzar was angry and heated the furnace seven times hotter than usual. When the three men were thrown in, Nebuchadnezzar was amazed. 'We threw three men into the fire,' he exclaimed, 'but I see four men walking unhurt. The fourth looks like the son of God.'

Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego walked out of the fire and there was not even the smell of burning on their clothes. Nebuchadnezzar was impressed. 'Blessed be God who saved his servants. They trusted in him and risked their lives in order to worship the one true God.'

We can ask God to give us the courage and commitment to put him first. The first puzzle on page 13 will show you what Jesus says should be first in your life.

*And God spake all these words, saying,
I am the LORD thy God, which have brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.
Thou shalt have no other gods
before me.
