

Pharaoh ordered that all the Hebrew baby boys
be killed.

Moses' mother hid him for three months to keep him safe.

She placed him in a waterproof basket of bulrushes which she floated in the river among the reeds.

Moses had a big sister, Miriam. She watched from a distance to see what happened to the baby.