

To the church of God which is in Corinth, to those who are sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints, with all who in every place call on the name of Jesus Christ our Lord (1 Corinthians 1:2).

When God speaks in the Bible about the church, he does not mean a building where services are held. The real church is the people of God, those who belong to him. The church is all over the world, made up of the people everywhere who call on the name of the Lord Jesus.

The church is also the group of people that meet together regularly to worship God.

