From the author of 'Big God'

A biblical study of the Holy Spirit

What his presence looks like, and the effect it has in our lives

AUTHOR

Orlando Saer is the Senior Pastor of Christ Church Southampton where he is involved in training and discipling university students. He has previously served churches in Sydney, London and Surrey. He is the author of Iron Sharpens Iron and Big God. He is married to Libby and they have four children.

ENDORSEMENTS

The book walks us through the bigger picture of the Bible, showing us how the coming of the Spirit is the fulfilment of God's plan. Expect to learn, expect to grow, expect to discover all it means for you to rejoice in the greatness of the Spirit.

Neil Powell
Pastor, City Church, Edgbaston, Birmingham

Orlando Saer's book is an answer to a Christian's prayer. He cuts through the cacophony with Biblical wisdom and gives us reason for confidence - and joy! - in the person and work of the one called 'the breath of God'.

Michael P. Jensen
Rector, St Mark's Anglican Church, Darling Point, New South Wales and Honorary Research Associate, Sydney College of Divinity

Writing in a punchy and engaging style, Orlando Saer sets the work of the Spirit in the context of God's unfolding plan of redemption, and shows how He fulfils His new covenant promises to bring us new life, new speech, new power and a new heart.

John Stevens
National Director, Fellowship of Independent Evangelical Churches, Market Harborough, Leicestershire
