Written by Richard Bewes, OBE

AUTHOR

Richard Bewes (1934 – 2019) was the author of several beloved books of faith including 'Talking About Prayer', '150 Pocket Thoughts', and 'The Goodnight Book'. Bewes was the rector of All Souls Church in the centre of London from 1983 until his retirement in 2004. In 2005 he was awarded an OBE for his services to the Church of England.

ENDORSEMENTS

Richard is both fervently pro–revival and utterly sane. Best of all, it's a book on revival with the gospel at the heart of it.

Dale Ralph Davis
Respected Author and Old Testament Scholar

Simple, yet profound ... A book to read, and read again.

Susie Leafe
Director of Reform, Sheffield, and Member of the General Synod of the Church of England

May this book provide a fresh impulse for Christians worldwide to pray for revival in our gospel–starved communities.

John Woodbridge
Research Professor of Church History and Thought, Trinity International University, Deerfield, Illinois

Richard takes us to the heart of true revival ... stirs us to prayer ... warns us against false manifestations ... encourages us with wonderful, untold stories of the Lord's work around the world.

Alasdair Paine
Vicar of St. Andrew the Great, Cambridge
