ENDORSEMENTS

Brian Arnold guides us to a compelling voice from the past at a time when we desperately need wisdom for the present. This is a valuable book for those seeking a formative conversation with the Church Fathers. We would do well to listen.

Megan DeVore
Associate Professor of Church History and Early Christian Studies, Colorado Christian University, Colorado

A fascinating, stimulating and easy to read book on a theologian who loved church. It is a book about a great man that should change and challenge and bring joy every time you meet with and think about your church.

Steve Levy
Pastor, Mount Pleasant Baptist Church, Swansea, Wales

Arnold purposes neither to re-make Cyprian in his own image nor to discard the Carthaginian bishop on the ash heap of history. Arnold rather insists that Cyprian can serve as a stimulating conversation partner within the contemporary context.

Paul Hartog
Professor of Theology, Faith Baptist Theological Seminary, Ankeny, Iowa

Immensely rewarding and full of exquisite detail, this book is a winner in every respect. More, please.

Derek W. H. Thomas
Teaching Fellow, Ligonier Ministries; Retired Senior Minister, First Presbyterian Church (ARP), Columbia, South Carolina
