DESCRIPTION

Technology can be a great gift. It allows us to communicate with people all over the world instantly. But it can also do great harm if not used wisely. This short book gives helpful suggestions for how to use technology to glorify God in our lives, as well as making us aware of what dangers there are in misusing technology.

AUTHOR

John Perritt is the Director of Resources for Reformed Youth Ministries (rym.org) and serves as the host of The Local Youth Worker podcast for RYM. He is the author of Time Out! (2018) & Insecure (2019). He and his wife, Ashleigh, live in Ridgeland, MS, with their five children.

ENDORSEMENTS

John Perritt has given us a concise and direct outlook on technology that's rooted in the unchanging truths of God's Word. This book will lead your students into navigating technology to the glory of God while enabling their own human flourishing.

Walt Mueller
President, Center for Parent/Youth Understanding

... explains that God's Word gives us wisdom for every aspect of life, and that Jesus is Lord of All – including technology.

Sharon James
Social Policy Analyst, The Christian Institute

... encourages us to actually think about our use of technology and to steer a sensible and God–honouring course past the dangers that are encountered in cyber–space.

David J. Randall
Author of 'Why I Am Not an Atheist' and 'Christianity – Is It True?'

God's gifts can quickly become idols, and technology is no exception. In nine concise chapters, John Perritt helps young people think through why they use technology the way they do, and also why it can be unhealthy and dangerous. Pastors will want parents and youth leaders to make use of this valuable resource.

Charles M. Wingard
Associate Professor of Practical Theology and Dean of Students, Reformed Theological Seminary, Jackson, Mississippi
