ENDORSEMENTS

Here is a beautifully crafted introduction to a much neglected Biblical hero. It is rich in pastoral encouragement for believers under pressure, full of wise biblical insight for disciples living in an egocentric culture, and focused on prayerful application day by day. A devotional gem!

Jonathan Lamb
Minister-at-large for Keswick Ministries, IFES Vice President, and former Director, Langham Preaching

Sellar takes readers through a series of daily reflections filled with biblical, theological, and practical insight that not only give John his due but, more importantly, are right in line with John's life and calling as a prophet pointing to Jesus who came to take away the sin of the world.

Brian Vickers
Professor of New Testament Interpretation and Biblical Theology, The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, Louisville, Kentucky

His careful reflections come from a lifetime of ministry that has been biblical, pastoral and practical. Consequently, Frank's insights into the Baptist's character and ministry are applied with a deceptive simplicity that can veil the wisdom of these brief expositions.

David Searle
Pastor and former Director of Rutherford House, Edinburgh.

Engaging, thoughtful and wise, Frank Sellar's 31–day devotional brings fresh eyes to a familiar story. The great gift of this book is to encourage and challenge both our head and heart. It will bless all those who read it.
