DESCRIPTION

In this short book for young adults, Derek Thomas explains what the Bible means when it talks about glory. Beginning with the Creation, he explains how the reflection of God's glory was not completely destroyed when sin entered the world, but it was broken. Thomas then goes on to explain how this glory of God was perfectly represented in the person of Jesus; how it is partially restored in Christians; and how it will be perfectly restored in the new heavens and the new earth.

AUTHOR

Derek W. H. Thomas, originally from Wales, was the Senior Minister of First Presbyterian Church in Columbia, South Carolina and Chancellor's Professor of Systematic and Pastoral Theology at Reformed Theological Seminary. He is a Teaching Fellow with Ligonier Ministries. He previously served as the Chairman of the Theology Department at Reformed Theological Seminary, Jackson, Mississippi.

ENDORSEMENTS

A bright, thoughtful, engaging and much needed introduction to the wonder and power of God's presence made known.

Jonny Dyer
Associate Rector, All Souls, Langham Place, London

Part of Christian discipleship is getting this hope down into your heart until you really believe it, and it begins to change your longings and your living. Dr. Thomas, as a sympathetic shepherd, will guide you in the truth of glorification to that end.

Ligon Duncan
Chancellor and CEO, Reformed Theological Seminary

This book celebrates the marvelous glory that is to come. All the while, reminding us of how that future glory breaks in to this present world. Thank you, Dr. Thomas, for offering biblical wisdom and insight into what living the Christian life is all about.

Stephen J. Nichols
Senior Scholar and Ambassador, Lancaster Bible College, Pennsylvania; author, 'Track: A Student's Guide to Apologetics'
