AUTHOR

Brian J. Wright (Ph.D.) is the founding pastor of Redeemer Community Church in Pensacola, Florida, and author of more than a dozen books, including 'The Rhythm of the Christian Life' and 'Communal Reading in the Time of Jesus'.

John Brown (Th.M.) is the founding pastor of Denia Community Church in Denton, Texas. Previously he trained missionaries and taught international pastors.

ENDORSEMENTS

Too many people—kids and parents—miss out on the rich truths of the Minor Prophets. So I am happy to recommend Habakkuk by Dr. Wright and Pastor Brown as a rich resource for families. This fresh look at an overlooked book will bless you and your children.

Dianne Jago
Mother of three, founder of Deeply Rooted Magazine, & author of 'A Holy Pursuit: How the Gospel Frees Us to Follow and Lay Down Our Dreams'

I have no doubt of the tremendous benefit these will prove to be for countless Christian parents and churches.

Bruce Ware
Professor of Christian Theology, The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, Louisville, Kentucky & author of 'Big Truths for Young Hearts'

After reading these summaries, children should come away knowing what each book is about, as well as the important principles God wants us to learn. I'm looking forward to reading this book to my grandsons in the days ahead.

Robert B. Chisholm, Jr.
Chair and Professor of Old Testament Studies, Dallas Theological Seminary, Texas & author of 'Interpreting the Minor Prophets' and 'Handbook on the Prophets'

Why do bad things happen? Habakkuk struggled to understand God—your kids will, too! With simply–stated biblical truths, Brian and John show us Habakkuk's trust in God and points us to Jesus who came to rescue us from a greater evil—our sin.

Barbara Reaoch
Former director, Children's Division of Bible Study Fellowship International & author of 'A Better Than Anything Christmas' and 'A Jesus Christmas'
