ENDORSEMENTS

In a day of cool communication, Donald John MacLean makes the case for warm, wholehearted and unrestrained gospel proclamation. This book made me want to preach. It is a treasure for all who love the gospel of Jesus Christ.

Colin S. Smith

Can we offer everyone the invitation to come to Christ? With careful and systematic use of Scripture, the author conclusively shows us that the answer is a resounding 'Yes'. I pray that this book spurs us all to make the free offer of the good news of Jesus Christ to everyone, with urgency, winsomeness, and power.

Jeremy Marshall
Evangelist and author of Beyond the Big C: Hope in the Face of Death

Donald John Maclean helpfully lays out the biblical teaching on this most important of topics, and its implications. The chapter 'Objections considered' to the free offer of the gospel is particularly noteworthy. It is a welcome addition to writings in this field.
