DESCRIPTION

There are around 8,000 people incarcerated in Scotland. For 40 years, Prison Fellowship Scotland has been working with prisoners and their families, providing practical help and care, and sharing the good news about Jesus. 40 Years Behind Bars tells the stories of the work of Prison Fellowship Scotland, from the perspective of the people closest to the work – prisoners, volunteers and prison workers, amongst others.

MARKETING POINTS

Uplifting first person stories

The power of the gospel in changing lives

Written by prisoners and others working with PFS

AUTHOR

Prison Fellowship Scotland is an organisation working within Scotland's prisons to bring support, restoration and hope to prisoners and their families.

ENDORSEMENTS

What a treat to listen to many stories of God's work. Grace is always amazing but reading accounts like these leads one to the conclusion that some testimonies highlight more than others the power of sin to ruin but where sin did abound, grace does much more abound.

David Meredith
Mission Director, Free Church of Scotland

… for God's gospel to do its work, for God's dynamite to explode in lives and to bring about a new creation, it must be shared. … What an encouragement to read in this book the testimonies of lives redeemed and renewed through the gospel.

Garry Brotherston
Minister, Bishopbriggs Free Church, Glasgow

… be aware that these voices and stories might just turn your world view upside down, make you thinking differently about faith and restorative justice and perhaps even transform you, just like the stories of Jesus do.

Yvonne Lyon
Musician, songwriter and recording artist

The voices of the various parties in this book tell a powerful story of God's love and grace and the difference His love and grace make. Listen for yourself and be inspired.

Norm Allen
Founder and President of Touchstone Ministries
