DESCRIPTION

We are surrounded by lies. They are incorporated into the worldview of our culture. Sharon James investigates the origins of some of these lies and looks at how we have got to the point where absolute truth is an outdated concept. In examining the evidence of history, she highlights the consequences of applying dangerous untruths. In the second part she turns to the truth which leads to real liberation and justice. She shows why we don't need to be ashamed of Christ, or intimidated by the claims of those who are militantly opposed to the Bible.

ENDORSEMENTS

... shows us that it all started with the denial of the existence of God, absolute morality, and universal truth. Instead, the world conjured up its own notions of truth and justice. The only antidote is to return to a biblical worldview, which Sharon very deftly lays out in the second half of her book. I highly recommend this work!

John MacArthur
(1939-2025) Chancellor, The Master's University and Seminary; Pastor–Teacher, Grace Community Church, Sun Valley, California

Clearly and forcefully and in pursuit of a purpose of persuasion, James has given us a succinct analysis of today's culture of death, how we got here, assurance that it will not have final victory, and clear guidance out of the bondage of these destructive lies.

Tom Nettles
Senior Professor of Historical Theology, The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, Louisville, Kentucky

... a detailed but highly readable and valuable resource to help us engage with the people around us and contextualise the timeless truth of Jesus.

Graham Nicholls
Director, Affinity, Cambridge, UK

Anyone seeking to understand why society seems to be falling apart, and what we can do about it, needs to read this book. Highly recommended!
