DESCRIPTION

God told Jonah to go to Nineveh and tell the people there to stop doing bad things and turn back to God. But Jonah took a boat in the opposite direction, so God sent a big storm and Jonah ended up in the belly of a big fish. When Jonah finally told the Ninevites God's message, they turned away from their evil ways, but instead of rejoicing, Jonah was angry. Brian Wright and John Brown show us how Jonah points to Jesus, and teaches us about compassion and obedience.

AUTHOR

Brian J. Wright (Ph.D.) is the founding pastor of Redeemer Community Church in Pensacola, Florida, and author of more than a dozen books, including 'The Rhythm of the Christian Life' and 'Communal Reading in the Time of Jesus'.

John Brown (Th.M.) is the founding pastor of Denia Community Church in Denton, Texas. Previously he trained missionaries and taught international pastors.

ENDORSEMENTS

Here is a series that introduces small children to the world and words of biblical prophets. These books fill a large gap in the Christian nurture of young children.

Duane A. Garrett
John R. Sampey Professor of Old Testament Interpretation at Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, Louisville, Kentucky

John and Brian have captured the message of these books and packaged them in a form ideal for parents who hope to train their children up in the faith.

James M. Hamilton Jr.
Professor of Biblical Theology, The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, Louisville, Kentucky

With bright illustrations and lots of animal pictures, God's Daring Dozen provides a fun and helpful way to increase biblical literacy and open some less familiar parts of Scripture to young listeners.

The Gospel Coalition

Brian's and John's presentation of these undervalued books captures their messages in ways that young readers can grasp and very smoothly weaves them into the larger fabric of the Gospel. An excellent tool for helping children grasp and retain the Gospel as promised in these Old Testament books.

Daniel C. Timmer
Director and Professor of Biblical Studies, Puritan Reformed Theological Seminary, Grand Rapids, Michigan and author of Obadiah, Jonah, Micah, Tyndale Old Testament Commentary 26
