DESCRIPTION

Emotional,
engaging and raw, Sean DeMars tells his story of a life turned around. It is a tale of two families: one scarred by brokenness, another renewed by grace. As he shares his story, the tragedy and horror of his early years is replaced by glimpses of the beautiful life of restoration he now leads. This is the story of every sinner saved by grace; once a victim and rebel, now reconciled and redeemed.

Sean's story is wild. Apart from experiencing God's grace, I don't know how anyone would believe it. Praise God for his work in and through Sean.
