ENDORSEMENTS

… stimulating, learned, and edifying—a fitting tribute to Dr. Kelly's legacy inside and outside the classroom.

Kevin DeYoung
Senior Pastor, Christ Covenant Church, Matthews, North Carolina

… strikes a chord of several harmonious notes—Bible, theology, history, and practical Christianity—just like the music of Douglas Kelly's life. What a friend, scholar, and faithful man of God and theologian he has been and still is!

Joel R. Beeke
Chancellor, Puritan Reformed Theological Seminary, Grand Rapids, Michigan

… a treasure of weighty theology rooted in the winsome graciousness of personal piety and prayerful discipleship. I learnt a very great deal from these writers who have learned so much from Dr Kelly, and I thank God for him and for each of them.

David Gibson
Minister, Trinity Church, Aberdeen

… a rich feast of essays on theology, church history, and ministerial praxis—which is quite apropos given Professor Kelly's wide range of ministry. All in all, a truly excellent way to honour his eminently faithful and spiritually profitable lifetime of teaching.

Michael A. G. Haykin
Professor of Church History and Biblical Spirituality, The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, Louisville, Kentucky
