DESCRIPTION

The book in the Bible known as Acts is all about what Jesus did after he went back to heaven after the resurrection. In it we see how the good news about Jesus spread all over the known world. Volume One contains stories from the beginning of Acts up to chapter thirteen, and Volume Two contains chapters fourteen to twenty–eight. Each two–page spread features one story, as well as these additional features: Look Back –Read a passage from earlier in the Bible and see how God planned these events from long ago; Check This Out – Read another passage from the Bible that relates to this one and see how they connect; Think – Spend some time thinking about how what you've read is relevant to your life.
