DESCRIPTION

These prayers, written by a pastor for his beloved congregation, remind us of our need for repentance and assure us from Scripture of God's abounding love. Discover afresh that God's grace is all–sufficient. Be reminded that in Jesus Christ the heavenly Father has given us a loving Savior, and by his Spirit reassures us that there is forgiveness. This book will be an invaluable addition to an individual's daily devotion, or for pastors to use with their own congregations.

- Foreword by Sinclair B. Ferguson
- Afterword by Dale Ralph Davis
- For individual devotion, or congregational use

AUTHOR

Derek W. H. Thomas, originally from Wales, was the Senior Minister of First Presbyterian Church in Columbia, South Carolina and Chancellor's Professor of Systematic and Pastoral Theology at Reformed Theological Seminary. He is a Teaching Fellow with Ligonier Ministries. He previously served as the Chairman of the Theology Department at Reformed Theological Seminary, Jackson, Mississippi.

ENDORSEMENTS

Too often, in our haste to get to the "real" work of prayer, we neglect confession. But through his example, and now with this book, Derek offers a needed reminder. Expect to be humbled, drawn closer to God, and brought to the Throne, where grace and mercy reign.

Neil Stewart
Senior Minister, First Presbyterian Church (ARP), Columbia, South Carolina

Distinguished pastor–theologian Derek Thomas offers us beautiful and thoughtful expressions of confessing our sins and of being refreshed and renewed by the ever–flowing streams of God's mercy.

Stephen J. Nichols
Senior Scholar and Ambassador, Lancaster Bible College, Pennsylvania; author, 'Track: A Student's Guide to Apologetics'

These are beautiful prayers framed by Scripture, helping us to pray with understanding and depth, to grasp the gravity of our sin, and to marvel at the wonder and joy of forgiveness.

Paul Levy
Minister, International Presbyterian Church, Ealing, London
