DESCRIPTION

Around the World with 80 Missionaries: An Epic Adventure Through Faith and History

Join an extraordinary journey across all seven continents as you discover the incredible true stories of eighty brave missionaries who changed the world! From the frozen landscapes of Antarctica to the bustling markets of Asia, from African jungles to Pacific islands, this captivating book takes young readers on an unforgettable adventure through time and geography.

Meet courageous men and women like Hudson Taylor in China, David Livingstone in Africa, and Amy Carmichael in India, who left comfortable homes to share God's love in dangerous and distant lands. Discover how Gladys Aylward rescued children in war-torn China, how John Paton survived cannibals in the Pacific, and how Mary Slessor became a peacemaker in Nigeria.

- Fascinating facts about each continent
- Detailed maps
- Combines geography, history and inspiring faith stories

Young readers will learn about different cultures, witness incredible acts of courage, and understand how the Gospel spread around the globe through engaging stories that read like adventures novels. Perfect for ages 8-14, this beautifully illustrated volume shows how ordinary people were involved in extraordinary things when they answered God's call.
