AUTHOR

Dr Alec Motyer (1924-2016) was a well-known Bible expositor and from an early age had a love for studying God's Word. He was principal of Trinity College, Bristol and wrote many widely appreciated commentaries and other books.

ENDORSEMENTS

… expository without being dry, devotional without being forced. As we get to look over his shoulder, we learn to read the Psalms better for ourselves … delicious combination–richly full, concisely put.

Mark Dever
Senior Pastor, Capitol Hill Baptist Church and President, 9Marks.org, Washington, DC

This book is the dream combination: the Psalms presented as a daily devotional by the great Christian scholar … Everyone who picks up this book will find that they not only learn to read and understand the Psalms as Christian scripture, they may also find their prayer life changed in a profound and dramatic way.

Carl R. Trueman
Professor of Biblical and Religious Studies, Grove City College, Pennsylvania

Part commentary, part word study, and part devotional summary/analysis, the author has brought together his earlier treatment of the Psalms in a repackaged format suitable for daily personal reading. Reflective, suggestive, informative, and inspiring, this book models the profound but subtle scholarship for which Motyer was well known.

Banner of Truth

This book is an absolute treasure – a life–time of godly scholarship, faithful preaching and pastoral wisdom all in one volume … a wonderful way to engage freshly with these rich Biblical songs!

Jonathan Lamb
Minister-at-large for Keswick Ministries, IFES Vice President, and former Director, Langham Preaching
