DESCRIPTION

Spurgeon wrote these readings to encourage believers to claim the full provision that their relationship to Jesus entitles them to realise. We must present the promises of Scripture to God in prayer and faith, anticipating that he will honour what he has said. Each day's devotion therefore begins with a verse of scripture and is followed by a brief exposition to exhort and encourage believers to continue walking with God. Dated from 1st January to 31st December, and drawing on verses from throughout the Bible, Spurgeon assures readers of the necessity and relevance of God's word for every day.

AUTHOR

C. H. Spurgeon, the great Victorian preacher, was one of the most influential people of the second half of the 19th Century. At the heart of his desire to preach was a fierce love of people, a desire that meant he did not neglect his pastoral ministry.
