DESCRIPTION

Nothing But Christ: A Bold Call Back to What Really Matters

What if the Christianity we practice isn't the real thing?

In Nothing but Christ: Escaping the Fake Christianity We All Believe, Robert D. Golding challenges comfortable, culture-shaped faith and calls believers back to the blazing center of Christianity—Jesus Himself. With biblical depth and pastoral urgency, this book exposes the emptiness of performance, moderation, and self-focused religion.

Discover how to:

- Let go of counterfeit faith
- See suffering and depression through Christ
- Embrace radical discipleship
- Treasure Jesus above everything

When Christ becomes everything, everything else finally makes sense.

AUTHOR

Robert Golding is the lead pastor of the First Christian Reformed Church of Artesia, California. He has written peer-reviewed articles for renowned scholarly journals such as Westminster Theological Journal, Calvin Theological Journal, Themelios, as well as places like The Gospel Coalition. He lives in Southern California with his beautiful wife and four children.

ENDORSEMENTS

This book is a healing balm for the modern church, which is so often distracted, fragmented, and disillusioned. It is a clarion call to return to the One who is the anchor of our souls.

Joel R. Beeke
Chancellor, Puritan Reformed Theological Seminary, Grand Rapids, Michigan

... a personal, confessional journey of coming to exalt Jesus Christ as expressed in a Reformed theological framework. ... an exhortation to live a life worthy of the sacrifice of Jesus Christ for us.

Jul Medenblik
President, Calvin Theological Seminary, Grand Rapids, Michigan

... a bold, thought-provoking survey of the raw challenges of following Jesus. Rob Golding has written an honest, biblical assessment of the human condition, paired with the awesome hope of the gospel message. This book strips away all the noise and reminds the reader to focus their energy on true discipleship.

Todd Pheifer
Assistant Dean, Azusa Pacific University, Azusa, California

Golding guides us on a daring, spiritual journey.... In the dark caverns of struggle and sin, one finds blessing in the sovereignty of God, the power of Christ's cross, and the Holy Spirit's gift of repentance. Despite the dark, find joy in the light that breaks into souls that grasp that there is nothing but Christ.

Peter Lillback
President, Westminster Theological Seminary, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania
