DESCRIPTION

When Dreams Shatter, God's Plan Stands Firm

Shattered Dreams and God's Plan: The Joseph Narrative in Genesis 37–50 by Dale Ralph Davis explores Joseph's journey from betrayal to blessing, revealing God's hidden hand in every trial. With clarity and warmth, Davis shows how suffering, silence, and setbacks serve a greater purpose.

Why read it:

- Honest about pain and doubt
- Deeply rooted in Scripture
- Engaging and accessible
- Rich in illustration
- Full of hope

Perfect for personal study or teaching, this book reminds readers that even shattered dreams are never outside God's faithful plan.

AUTHOR

Dale Ralph Davis is a respected Bible expositor and author of many popular books. He was Minister in Residence of First Presbyterian Church, Columbia in South Carolina. Prior to that he was pastor of Woodland Presbyterian Church, Hattiesburg, Mississippi and Professor of Old Testament at Reformed Theological Seminary, Jackson, Mississippi.

ENDORSEMENTS

Dale Ralph Davis shows once again why he is one of the most trusted expositors writing today. With his usual wit and whimsy as well as insight and illustration, he leads us effectively through the final stretch of God's book of beginnings. He leads us through the very human concerns for these patriarchs to show how God met them in their struggles. Asking the way, he movingly reminds us how God meets us too.
