A Simple Guide to a Living Faith

A Small Christian Guidebook is a practical, accessible introduction to the Christian life, offering 30 short chapters from trusted teachers and leaders. It answers key questions about belief, daily living, and life's challenges, helping readers understand and follow Jesus with clarity and confidence. Ideal for new Christians or those seeking a fresh perspective, each chapter is concise, biblical, and encouraging.

Why read it:

- Covers faith, lifestyle, and struggles
- Clear, easy-to-read chapters
- Grounded in Scripture
- Written by experienced contributors

A reliable companion for anyone wanting to grow in faith and live it out daily.

AUTHOR

Simon is an Anglican minister in Sydney. He served at St Thomas North Sydney for thirty years (1989-2019) and is now in active retirement, teaching at Cornhill, and speaking where invited. He has an ongoing radio ministry. Simon is married to Kathy.

Chris is a Sydney-based gynaecologist, surgeon, and academic. An elder at St Thomas' Anglican Church in North Sydney, he is married to Linda and they have three sons.

ENDORSEMENTS

Whether you're a new follower of Jesus, or have been following Him for years, this helpful guidebook will encourage you along the way. This is food for the soul, delivered by faithful men and women who know and love the Lord, and want others to know and love Him too.

Carrie Sandom
Director of Women's Ministry, Proclamation Trust

... Simon Manchester has assembled a host of seasoned Christian conversationalists to winsomely engage some of the most significant questions raised about life in Christ. Hearing from them will bring you and those you are in conversation with greater confidence that God's ways are always best.

David Helm
Pastor, Christ Church Chicago, Illinois

I loved reading this wise, warm and compelling guide. It gathers the seasoned voices of Christians who have trusted Jesus and followed him faithfully over many years. A beautiful gift for new believers—and for anyone still considering Christ.

Jenny Salt
Dean of Students, Sydney Missionary and Bible College, Sydney

Here is rich, accessible wisdom from Scripture on some of the most important questions we could ask. It will be especially helpful to those just setting out on the Christian life, but any believer will find much here to inform, encourage and challenge them.

Vaughan Roberts
Rector of St Ebbe's, Oxford and Director of Proclamation Trust
