The Great Nation of Abraham

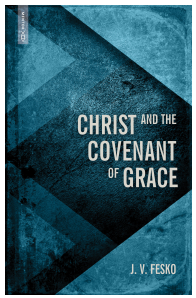

Peter Lee

RELEASE DATE 14 NOVEMBER 2026

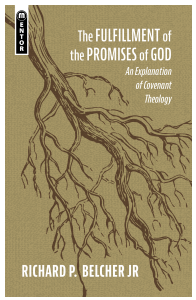

RELATED TITLES

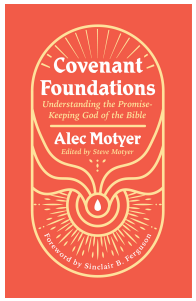

9781527114661
£29.99 $39.99

9781527105195
£15.99 $19.99

9781527111004
£8.99 $12.99

DESCRIPTION

A Panoramic View of Salvation History and the Magnificent Scope of God's Covenant Promises

How does God's promise to Abraham shape the story of the whole Bible? This study traces the Abrahamic Covenant from Genesis to its ultimate fulfilment in Christ, revealing the unity of God's redemptive purposes.

Readers will discover how:

- People, land, law and king form the key themes of God's promise to Abraham.
- Israel provides an initial fulfilment of these promises, pointing forward to something greater.
- Jesus Christ and his church bring the covenant promises to their ultimate fulfilment.
- Union with Christ enables believers to share in the blessings promised to Abraham.
- God's eternal kingdom fulfils the promises in the new heavens and the new earth.

Rich in biblical detail and theological insight, this book reveals the unity of Scripture and the far-reaching purpose of God's redemptive plan.

AUTHOR

Peter Lee is Professor of Old Testament at Reformed Theological Seminary, Washington, D. C. and author of 'Joy Unspeakable', 'Aramaic Poetry in Qumran', and a contributor in 'A Biblical-Theological Introduction to the Old Testament: Gospel Promised'. He resides in Columbia, Maryland.

ENDORSEMENTS

TECHNICAL DETAILS

Ebook

ISBN 9781527115927
BISAC
PRICE £11.99 $15.99