ENDORSEMENTS

In Multiplying Churches, the authors lay out a vision for church planting that is gospel rich, but helpful and practical.

Ed Stetzer
Dean, Talbot School of Theology, Biola University, La Mirada, California

From the heights of biblical theology, to the plains of who does what, these brief chapters are again and again both practical and wise. I happily commend this book.

Mark Dever
Senior Pastor, Capitol Hill Baptist Church and President, 9Marks.org, Washington, DC

Multiplying Churches provides a biblical foundation and theological parameters for church planting activities. Read it prayerfully with your Bible in hand, then make application to your life and ministry!

Jon D. Payne
Senior Pastor, Christ Church Presbyterian, Mount Pleasant, South Carolina; Executive Coordinator, Gospel Reformation Network

Fifteen years ago, the church planting movement was in its infancy. Today, many things have been learned but new challenges lie ahead. Therefore I am glad for the new edition of this book, in which those early lessons can be reviewed and the new horizons faced.

Tim Keller
(1950 – 2023) Redeemer City to City
