DESCRIPTION

Meet Martin Luther, the ordinary monk who started a radical Reformation movement. Discover how a fresh understanding of the Scriptures not only transformed his own life but had a huge impact upon Europe. His convictions made him bold: read about what he nailed to a church door in Wittenberg, why he was kidnapped and how his life was in danger!

MARKETING POINTS

Key figure of the Reformation in Europe

500th anniversary in 2017 – nailing the 95 theses to the church door

Part of the Trailblazers biography Series

AUTHOR

Catherine MacKenzie comes from Scotland and has written several biographies for young teens in the Trailblazers series as well as other titles for younger children. She is Editor for Christian Focus' children's imprint, CF4Kids.

ENDORSEMENTS

Catherine Mackenzie's biography of Martin Luther is aimed at readers aged nine and above. It makes historical and gospel truths accessible and Mackenzie captures the sense of danger surrounding Luther's work. The reader is left with an appreciation of the historical impact of those Reformation events from 500 years ago. Children's book it may be, but adults need not pass it by; it is an easily digestible biography of one of the heroes of our faith.
