

A Little Bird Told Me

Everyday Expressions from Scripture Timothy Cross

RELEASE DATE 20 JANUARY 2015

RELATED TITLES

MARKETING POINTS

52 everyday sayings from the Bible

Surprising and interesting inclusions

Considers their meanings and origin

AUTHOR

Timothy Cross is a graduate of the University of Wales and an experienced preacher and Bible teacher. He is the author of over thirty Christian books and numerous articles in various Christian periodicals.

ISBN 9781781915530

BISAC REL006000

PRICE £8.99 $14.99

ENDORSEMENTS

We all can learn from animals especially a bird. This seems to be such a GREAT book.

Margaret Wrein

Featured sayings include:

The apple of my eye
No room at the Inn
The writing is on the wall
The powers that be
God forbid!
God willing

'He's been made a scapegoat ...'

Worthy of his hire The patience of Job 'He's seen the light'

Head and shoulders above the rest

A drop in the ocean A thorn in the flesh A wolf in sheep's clothing Be sure your sin will find you out O ye of little faith

'A man after my own heart'

To give up the ghost

'Don't judge by appearances!'

The salt of the earth

'Let him that is without sin be the first to cast a stone'

'It's a labour of love' He's fallen from grace A fly in the ointment

'I've escaped by the skin of my teeth'

'He's a good Samaritan' A lamb to the slaughter Manna from heaven The strait and narrow 'A little bird told me'

'A little bird told me' Safe and sound Rise and shine!

Entering the lion's den

'He couldn't lace his boots'
'Thus far and no further'
Holding out an olive branch

A loopard doorn't change its spots

A baptism of fire www.christianfocus.com

29/11/2025

224 Pages

TECHNICAL DETAILS

TRADE PAPERBACK