

Digging Ditches

The Latest Chapter of an Inspirational Life

Helen Roseveare

RELEASE DATE 20 JULY 2012

DESCRIPTION

MARKETING POINTS

God's work is done in the valleys

Trusting in the Lord can be a gritty, rewarding drama

An inspiring story shows those times when God's blessings seem withdrawn

AUTHOR

Helen Roseveare (1925–2016) went to the Congo as a missionary between 1953 and 1973. A pioneer of vital medical work in the rainforests of this region, she had a major impact long after she left. Through many trials, she lived out her life striving to serve her Lord with every day and encouraging those around her to do the same.

ENDORSEMENTS

'Thousands have been mobilised to serve, to give and pray, because of Helen Roseveare's ministry. I have already lent my copy of this book to a friend, and ordered stocks for the church bookstall.'

Evangelicals Now

Profoundly meaningful book covering the privilege of suffering from a lady who herself was raped.
