My Beloved Russia

A Story of God's Love for a Persecuted People

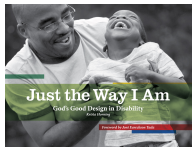

Dimitry Mustafin and Irene Howat

RELEASE DATE 20 SEPTEMBER 2005

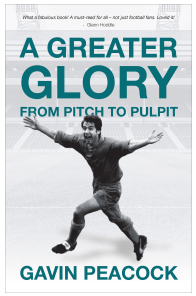

RELATED TITLES

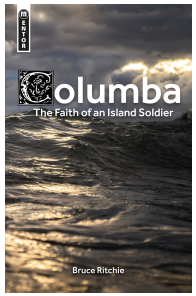

9781845508067
£9.99 $15.99

9781527106796
£11.99 $15.99

9781527103870
£17.99 $24.99

AUTHOR

Irene Howat is an award–winning author and poet who lives in Scotland.

ENDORSEMENTS

Further to my review, if anybody wants to help these Christians in Russia, "Come Over and Help", www.COAH.ORG, P.O.Box 150408, Grand Rapids, MI 49515-0408, USA, is a good mission, which enables Russian Christians to aid orphans and the needy around them, and distributes good quality Christian literature to pastors and others in Russia and Eastern Europe.

Maureen, New Zealand

Dimitry's Story is an enlightening look into Christianity during the communist era and, in the end, leaves the reader hopeful of the influence Christians are having accross the the former USSR.

Allen Waller, BMS World Mission intern writer in Mission Catalyst

If you have any interest in Russia, this is a "must read"! Honestly, I don't normally get moved to tears by books, but I wept and wept over the descriptions of conditions in Russia, especially for those in prisons, orphanages and the elderly. I kept having to stop reading, to weep and wipe away the tears and ask myself, "What can I do to help?" This is an up-to-date book and tells about life in Russia and especially in Moscow, as it is now. Like me, many of you will have prayed for Russia and her beloved people for many years through the sufferings of the Communist system and here are the answers to your prayers. Here is what has happened and is happening. Every Christian really needs to read this humble but greatly moving little book...and then do something about carrying on the work of the Lord in Russia. Buy a couple of copies, as I know you'll want to lend it to others to read. It's not a book to sit on your bookshelf gathering dust. Every church library needs a copy, and don't forget to donate one to your local public library! You'll be glad you bought it, I promise you.

Maureen, New Zealand

TECHNICAL DETAILS

TRADE PAPERBACK
192 Pages

ISBN 9781845500627
BISAC BIO018000
PRICE £7.99 $13.99